WILL OUR MONEY GO TO SUPPORT APARTHEID IN SOUTH AFRICA?

Money spent in an Atlantic City Casino may be used to support apartheid and brutality in South Africa, unless we act to prevent the granting of a casino license to a South African Company.

The Star-Ledger

Newark Mayor Kenneth A. Gibson yesterday asked the state Casino Control Commission to adopt a "clear and unequivocal" policy against granting a hotel-casino license to any group with "South African participation."

Associated Press

UNITED NATIONS — The head of the U.N. Special Committee against Apartheid urged yesterday that authorities in Atlantic City, N.J., prevent a South African hotel chain from building a casino complex there.

The Star-Ledger

The National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials (NBC-LEO) is the latest group to join a campaign against the issuance of a Atlantic City hotel-casino license to a South African firm.
